NEW! Farnam® Quietex™ II Paste and Pellets

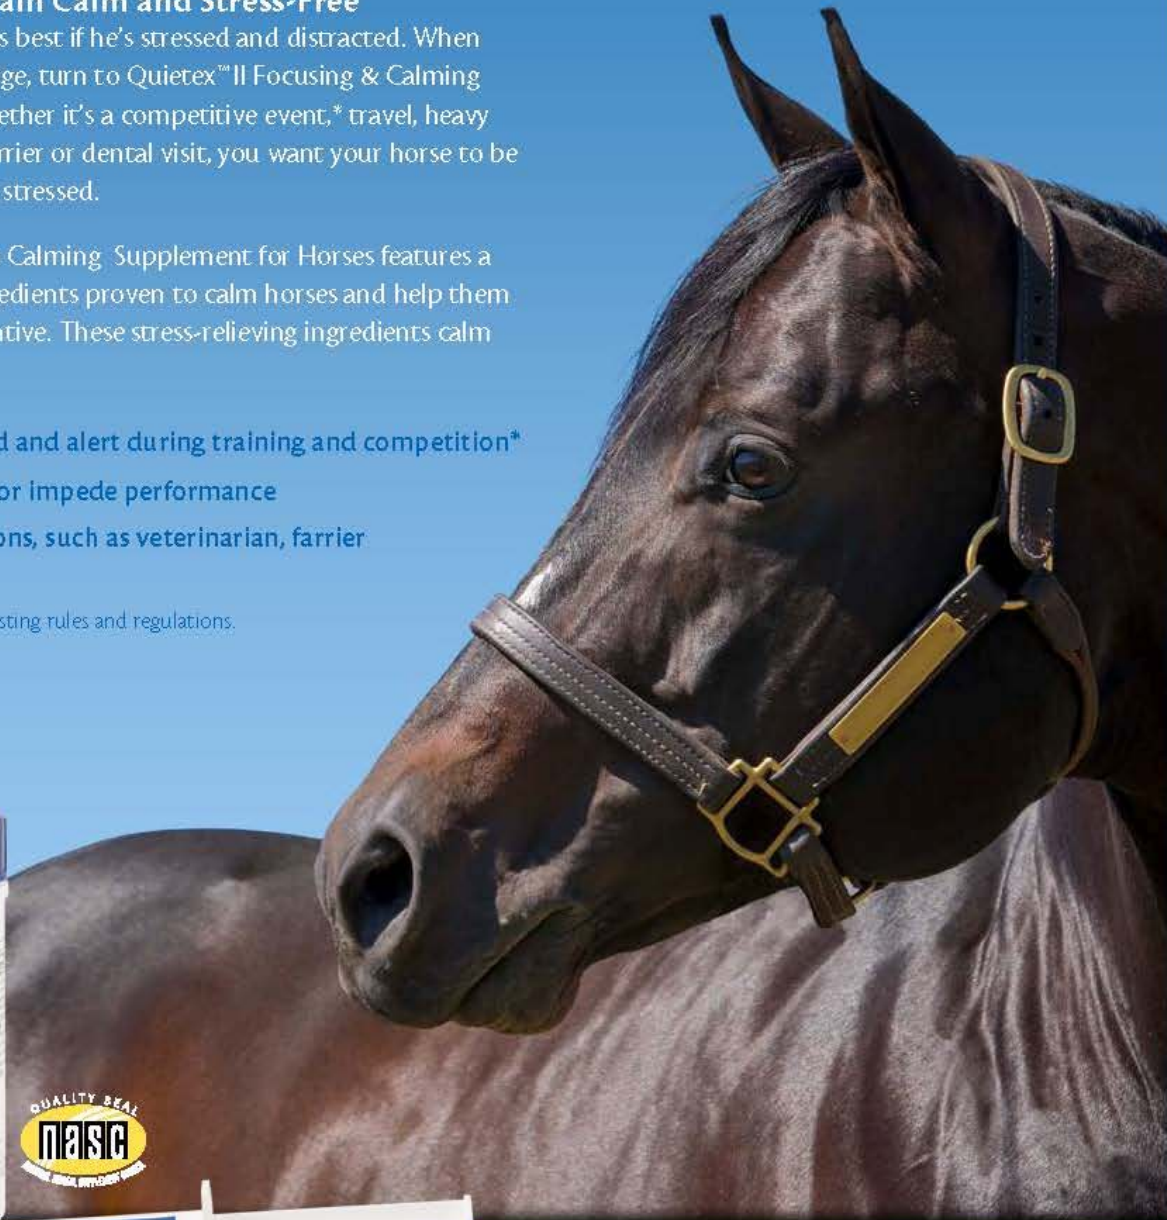

Help Your Horse Remain Calm and Stress-Free

Your horse can't give you his best if he's stressed and distracted. When stress puts your horse on edge, turn to Quietex™ II Focusing & Calming Supplement for Horses. Whether it's a competitive event,* travel, heavy training or a veterinarian, farrier or dental visit, you want your horse to be calm, alert and focused, not stressed.

NEW Quietex™ II Focusing & Calming Supplement for Horses features a unique combination of ingredients proven to calm horses and help them remain composed and attentive. These stress-relieving ingredients calm without drugs.

- + Helps horses stay focused and alert during training and competition*
- + Won't cause drowsiness or impede performance
- + Ideal for stressful situations, such as veterinarian, farrier and dental visits

*Check with your association for testing rules and regulations.

No More Distracted or Stressed Horses

The Quietex™ II line of products makes it easy to keep your horse calm and focused anytime.

For occasional stressful situations such as travel, competition* or changes in routine, use the handy 32.5 ml single-dose paste syringe.

To maintain your horse's calm demeanor during his regular training schedule, rely on the economically priced pellets in a convenient 1.625 lb. container. Simply add the palatable pellets to your horse's daily feed.

Keep both pellets and paste on hand so you're prepared ... whatever the situation.
